

Bere Point regional park campsite

"the wilderness experience"

Bere Point Park comes under the management of the Regional District of Mount Waddington.

Bere Point Campsite is located on Malcolm Island a short 25 minute ferry ride from Port McNeill and six kilometres from downtown Sointula. Posted signs will direct you from the ferry terminal to Bere Point.

CAMPGROUND AMENITIES

There are 30 campsites with 17 sites on the beachfront and the remaining sites being large, sunny sites nestled in the trees and one group tenting site.

There are two free picnic day-use areas at Bere Point for public use.

There is no potable running water, hydro or sewer at Bere Point campground. Please ensure you bring adequate drinking water.

Firewood may be available from the caretaker for a fee. At times there may be campfire bans imposed by the Ministry of Forests due to extreme dry weather conditions. Please obey all posted signs.

OTHER ATTRACTIONS:

You will see views of the Queen Charlotte Strait and the nearby snow-capped coastal mountains.

Occasionally you might see orcas swimming by or rubbing on the rocks at Bere Point. Watch these amazing mammals from the whale watching platform.

Bere Point is also the start of the Beautiful Bay Trail.

OTHER SERVICES:

Public showers, washrooms, laundry facilities and water are available at the Breakwater. Boat moorage, Co-op store, dry goods, gas bar, restaurant, library, Museum and ATM service are available in Sointula.

The quaint Finnish Village of Sointula has plenty to offer including locally made arts and crafts, sculpture and pottery, jewellery, watercolours and handmade soaps. The name Sointula means "harmony" in Finnish and this community has an intriguing history. Finnish settlers came to the island in the early 1900's and homesteaders made the conscious decision to live with such ideas as gender equality and contributions to community.
