

QUATSINO ADVISORY COMMISSION

The Regional District of Mount Waddington (RDMW) invites expressions of interest from the residents of, and / or owners of property within, the Quatsino community, to become volunteer members of the newly established Quatsino Advisory Commission (QAC). The QAC will be made up of a maximum of seven members including the Electoral Area 'B' Director, Andrew Hory, and it will review and provide input on referrals from the RDMW about matters of a planning nature (land use and development), as well as the newer recycling / waste transfer station and public wharf services that are being managed by the RDMW for the community. The RDMW will use the QAC's input as part of its decision-making processes in dealing with these matters.

Those persons interested in volunteering as a member of the QAC must submit an expression of interest by letter or email by 4:00pm on Friday, May 15, 2020, to Jeff Long, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer with the RDMW, stating their willingness to participate as a QAC member. Interested persons should also indicate whether they reside in the community of Quatsino for more than 180 days of the year or not and if they have a valid Canada Post mailing address associated with the community of Quatsino. The need for this information relates to the legislated requirement that at least two thirds of the members of the QAC be local residents. Members must be willing to participate in QAC meetings on an as needed basis which would be conducted not more than once per month and in all likelihood, once every two to four months. It is anticipated that meetings should generally not take longer than two hours. In cases where it makes sense to do so, electronic meetings may be conducted by internet and telephone. It may also be possible for members to participate electronically if they are unable to make in-person meetings.
