E. REPORTS

- Island Health – Dave Boychuk
 - o Capital Updates:
 - Expect to start scans in late calendar of 2023, work is ongoing with the CT Scanner project.
 - A vendor has been selected.
 - Pad work is underway.
 - Staff housing project is almost complete, which should include 10-2-bedroom housing units (these will be new build)
 - Investigating options for office related space in Port Hardy, due to expansion.
 - Public messaging will be forthcoming, including 2 signs announcing the CT scanner pad. This is awaiting on the Province to allow for location and date that signs can go up.
 - Concerns from community around the Hospital Bus line, including lack of information about trips, and if it will be expanded to Campbell River and Courtenay. There has been discussion around expansion, but it is still in the discussion stage due to some of the significant challenges and ensuring that there is collaboration with staff at the Campbell River and Courtenay hospitals.
