

DEVELOPING EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT PLANS

Free Course
October 18 and 19
in Port McNeill

The Regional District of Mount Waddington is sponsoring this course through the Justice Institute:

Developing Emergency Management Plans (EMRG-1139)

Learn a step-by-step approach to developing emergency management plans for an organization, community, government, or any entity with a responsibility for emergency planning.

This two-day interactive course focuses on the planning process and includes valuable strategies and tools to aid in creating and maintaining emergency management plans.

For more information, please email emergencycoordinator@rdmw.bc.ca or call 250 230-1519.